Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Lynda Marzahn has devoted over 27 years helping to develop a safe and efficient transportation system in South Dakota; and,

Whereas, During her career with the Department of Transportation (DOT), Lynda has given exemplary performance in a number of positions, including Accounting Clerk II, Administrative Secretary II, Highway Technician III, Internal Auditor, Project Engineer, Transportation Project Engineer, Transportation Specialist I and Interior Designer; and,

Whereas, We are thankful the cattle got out in 1978, which allowed Lynda the opportunity to join the public workforce, but the time has come for Lynda to retire and move to Redfield to spend time with her family; and,

Whereas, Lynda will have more time for relaxing, shopping, traveling with girlfriends, gardening and doing other things she truly enjoys; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to commend Lynda for her years of dedicated service;

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim March 23, 2006, as in South Dakota, and I join with her family, friends and co-workers in wishing her well in her retirement and thanking her for her service.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Tenth Day of March in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Six.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
